

WEATHER PHRASAL VERBS

- 1.Clear up: To become brighter and with no clouds.
 - The sky is starting to clear up.
 - I hope the weather clears up for our picnic later.
- 2. Warm up: To increase in temperature.
 - The day started chilly, but it's warming up nicely now.
 - The sun came out, and it's warming up the whole area.
- 3. Die down: To become less strong, intense, or active. (usually used for winds or storms).
 - Sophie stood in a bus shelter waiting for the wind to die down.
 - The rain is finally dying down; maybe we can go out soon.

4.Hold off: To delay or postpone. If rain or a storm holds off, it does not start immediately.

- I hope the rain holds off until we finish our outdoor event.
- The clouds look ominous, but let's hope the storm holds off.

5.Cloud over: When the sky becomes covered with clouds.

- The sky is starting to cloud over; it might rain soon.
- It was a sunny morning, but it quickly clouded over in the afternoon.

- 6.Cool down: To decrease in temperature.
 - After a hot day, it's finally cooling down.
 - I like to sit on the balcony when the weather cools down in the evening.
- 7. To be snowed in: To be unable to leave because of too much snow
 - Many people were snowed in by Monday's storm.
 - The mountain village was completely snowed in during the winter storm.
- 8. Blow over: When a storm or strong wind gradually diminishes and ends.
 - The storm is starting to blow over; we can go outside now.
 - It's a bit windy, but I think it will blow over by the evening.
- 9. Rain off: When an event or plan is cancelled due to heavy rain.
 - Unfortunately, the outdoor concert was rained off, so it's rescheduled for next week.
 - The picnic got rained off, but we had a cosy indoor gathering instead.
- 10. Break through: When the sun or light penetrates through clouds or darkness.
 - The morning sun finally broke through the heavy clouds.
 - At last the moon broke through the clouds and they could see their way.

- 11. Bucket down: To rain heavily.
 - It's been bucketing down all night; the streets are flooded.
 - The weather forecast predicts that it will bucket down this afternoon.
- 12. Brighten up: If the weather brightens up, it becomes lighter and less cloudy, with more sun.
 - I hope the weather brightens up in time for our walk.
 - The sky is beginning to brighten up after the storm.
- 13. Calm down: To become less stormy or windy.
 - After the strong winds, the weather is finally calming down.
 - Once the storm had calmed down, Anna checked her house for damage.
- 14. Let up: If bad weather or an unpleasant situation lets up, it stops or improves.
 - When the rain lets up we'll go for a walk.
 - This heat wave should let up by the end of the week.
- 15. Pour down: To rain heavily.
 - The rain started to pour down just as we left the house.
 - Don't go outside yet, Lucy. It's pouring down.

- 16. Ease off: To decrease in intensity or severity.
 - The wind is finally easing off; it was quite strong earlier.
 - Let's wait until the rain eases off before going outside.
- 17. Pick up: To increase in speed, intensity, or activity.
 - The rain started to pick up, so we decided to head indoors.
 - The wind is picking up. It's perfect weather for flying a kite.
- 18.Freeze over: To become covered in ice.
 - The pond has frozen over, and people are ice skating on it.
 - Be careful; the roads might freeze over with the dropping temperatures.
- 19. Start off: To begin.
 - The day started off sunny, but clouds rolled in later.
 - Let's hope the week starts off with clear skies and good weather.
- 20. Roll in: To arrive or approach slowly and steadily.
 - Dark clouds are starting to roll in; it might rain soon.
 - Fog rolled in overnight.